gives to his heirs. The homestead descended to Ben Aaron Wright from his father David and the use of a part from his uncle Ebenezer, was a piece of land sold to Wm Graves and now in 1882 owned by John B. Graves. The original homestead contained 6 acres, Ben Aaron Clark's old house & homestead it is, and a room was a part.

In 1661 Ben Aaron had a piece of land first homestead granted by the town, was bounded by a brook. By King's survey, the land was in the hands of Arthur Williams, Henry Burdette, the rest of the lot by John W. Graves. In 1664 Ben Aaron sold to Richard Mellevan, John W. Graves sold to a part of his homestead to Richard Mellevan, who sold to Ben Aaron
